

2018-19 Application Cover Sheet

The Julian Clement Chase Prize

For Excellence in Research Writing Focused on Washington DC

Date: _____ GWID: _____

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Name of course for which work was completed: _____

Department and course #: _____

Name of Instructor: _____ Instructor Email: _____

Contact information for August/ September 2019 (if different): _____

If a group project, include names and email addresses for additional authors: _____

Complete applications will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Original research demonstrating in-depth engagement with Washington, DC community from any discipline taught at the George Washington University, including social sciences, humanities, arts, and sciences.
- Clear and effective communication of ideas including consideration of whether project makes a contribution to the scholarship in a particular field (i.e. ethnomusicology, sociology of neighborhoods, or scientific analysis of water services that leads to policy recommendations).
- Adherence to academic standards of a particular field or discipline.

I certify that this is my original work and that I have properly cited the works of others. | I certify that this material has not been published elsewhere. | I give permission for the material to be archived in ScholarSpace at the George Washington University Libraries.

Signature and date _____

Optional: I give permission for a Creative Commons BY 3.0 license to be applied to my work. ()Y ()N

Submit this signed cover sheet, the assignment prompt & your research project as a single .pdf to ChaseWIDPrize@gmail.com

Winners will present at the Award Ceremony, at the University Writing Conference, and may be invited to attend dinner with the Clement family. Please stay tuned for these dates, which will be October.

For questions or more information, please contact Prof. Randi Kristensen rkris@gwu.edu